

SILVERLEAF™
WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Scott is an independent Wealth Advisor of Silverleaf Wealth Management, a financial services company based in Omaha, NE.

He began his career as a financial advisor after making a transition from venture capital to personal wealth management in 2011. In his early years, Scott enjoyed an enviable 6 year Major League Baseball career spanning 3 teams as a starting pitcher. He amassed over 50 wins, 500 strikeouts, 1000 innings pitched, as well as, hitting home runs in back to back outings.

Scott is keenly aware of the financial needs and intricate nature of his high net worth clients. He works tirelessly for these clients creating and adopting custom-built plans for wealth preservation, retirement income and legacy planning. As an Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF), Scott's singular focus is to provide the highest level of fiduciary care, always keeping the client's interest first and foremost.

Away from the office, Scott can be found playing competitive pickleball or golfing. Additionally, he has two daughters who are collegiate athletes and he can be found attending as many of their events as possible.
