WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Emily Jung joined Silverleaf Wealth Management in 2021, after spending many years as a practicing attorney. She guided families, business owners, and individuals regarding the preservation and transfer of their wealth in a tax-efficient manner while accomplishing their personal and financial objectives. In her role as a Director of Advanced Strategies, Emily is responsible for developing and implementing strategies for estate, wealth transfer, and philanthropic planning activities. Emily works closely and collaboratively with Silverleaf's advisors who provide integrated investment and wealth planning services. By developing a deep understanding of each client's unique circumstances and leveraging her expertise in estate and wealth transfer planning, Emily can help clients to pursue their personal, philanthropic, and wealth objectives.

Prior to joining Silverleaf Wealth Management, Emily's legal practice was focused on the areas of estate planning, post-death trust, and estate administration, business succession planning, and the formation and governance of not-for-profit entities. Emily received her B.A. from Southern Methodist University and her J.D. from Saint Louis University School of Law.

Emily has been and continues to be involved with various boards, committees, and activities around the greater Omaha area, including the following: Nebraska Medicine Healing Arts Advisory Board, Governance Committee, Aksarben Women's Ball Committee, American Cancer Society Omaha Leadership Board of Directors, American Cancer Society NE-IA Area Board and Completely KIDS, Pig, Pinot & Poets Event.

Emily and her husband, Mike, who serves as chief executive officer and president of Burlington Capital International in Omaha, have two children, Ellie, and Avery. Emily's personal interests include participating in the process (whether practicing, playing, or learning more) of the never-ending struggle of golf, reading autobiographical and other types of non-fiction books, and traveling with family and friends.
